What is our calling?

Our calling is faithfulness to the person and way of Jesus Christ as we engage practices of presence with God, with one another, and with our neighbors.

Put simply, we are to be faithfully present and on mission in Sunnyslope.

What do we believe?

We believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God written and to contain all things necessary to salvation. We affirm the historic Creeds of the undivided Church (Apostles, Nicene, and Athanasian), along with the historic Anglican formularies (the 1662 Book of Common Prayer/Ordinal, the 39 Articles of Religion) as faithful expressions of Scriptural teaching and Apostolic practice.

We believe the church is a family of disciples that transcends cultural tribal affiliations.

We believe God has called us to be part of and minister to the Sunnyslope community.

How are we connected to other Christians? We pursue collaborative relationships with other local churches from various denominations, and we remain connected to the worldwide Anglican Communion as member church of the Anglican Diocese of the Rocky Mountains, a diocese of the province of the Anglican Church in North America.

What do we do?

Our core practice is common worship each Sunday, organizing our whole lives around the proclamation of the love of God in Christ, receiving Christ in the sacraments, and participating in the life of Christ through the Christian Year.

We catechize children, youth and adults via occasional classes and Sunday School.

We develop authentic community with one another and neighbors via facilitated groups and events.

We offer caring assistance to those in need through our benevolence fund, and food delivery ministry.

How do we behave?

We behave with transparency, integrity, openness, kindness, and hospitality. We take bold action and calculated risks in faith for the sake of the Gospel.

How will we succeed? We will succeed by the power of the Holy Spirit as he intercedes for us prayer and conforms our hearts and minds to Christ.

How will we know we're on track?

We will know we are on track by prayerfully discerning our faithfulness to our calling. We look for these markers of faithfulness to make sure we're on track: Christ-focused, Gospel-centered Sunday mornings ● Caring, connected fellowship ● Servant leadership ● Guests received with joyful welcome and kind hospitality ● Discipleship-oriented community ● Consistent, no-strings-attached, loving service to our neighborhood ● Wise and obedient stewardship of material and non-material resources

What's most important right now? - Building a culture of invitation - Strengthening bonds of unity - Investing in leadership development
